The Institution...

St Philomena College came into existence in 1958 by the tireless efforts of Msgr Antony Patrao, who dedicated himself wholeheartedly for the upliftment of the people, irrespective of caste and creed. Since its inception, the college has proved itself to be a nurturing ground in building the youth suited for the dynamic environment.

During its long tenure of existence, it has grown and developed into a prestigious institution in the whole of Karnataka and neighbouring States. The College has been imparting education to the youth drawn from far and wide. Thus the college has lived up to the societal expectations with the growth in quantity without diluting the quality. Today, the college is well known for discipline, academic excellence, as well as in the field of sports and games.
